

POLICE CLUBS WILL SUBDUED BREAD RIOTS

If Necessary Other Weapons
Can Be Used, Warns
Corrington.

WILL STOP VIOLENCE.

Committee of Strikers Had Gone to Complain of Police Discrimination.

OUTBREAK SOON FOLLOWS.

Mob Smashes Pushcart Laden with Bread, and Nightstick Threat Is Made Good.

Directly after Acting Police Commissioner McAvoy and Inspector Corrington had announced to a committee of striking "kitchen" bakers today that whenever they resorted to violence they would be properly clubbed, and if nightsticks were not effective other weapons would be used, there was a riot on Clinton street in which a dozen heads were broken and many women knocked down and trampled in a wild rush to escape from the swinging clubs of the police.

Samuel Kutz and several of his followers called on McAvoy at 1 P. M. and announced that the police were discriminating against the strikers and enjoining them without mercy. To this the Acting Commissioner replied:

"I can't do anything for you unless you preserve order. I can't take one side or the other. Order must be preserved. You needn't get it into your head that you can run this town. I have placed Inspector Corrington in charge of this matter and advise you to see him."

The delegation descended to the Inspector's office, where they repeated their plea for gentle treatment by the police. The Inspector answered them with another:

"The police have been ordered to put this rioting down with clubs if necessary and with other weapons if clubs won't serve. I am going to have order on the east side. If you have to beat every man over there, I intend to take personal charge of the reserves this afternoon and use drastic measures to quell this rioting."

A few minutes after the strikers had received this sharp rebuff a man and a boy were seen wheeling a pushcart through Clinton street, near the headquarters of the strikers at No. 80. Though the cart was covered with blankets some of the strikers learned that it was laden with loaves of bread. Word flashed around to the strikers, and a yelling mob soon filled the street.

Smashed the Cart.

They jumped on the cart and smashed it to kindling, scattering the bread in the street and trampling upon it. The man and boy in charge of the cart were beaten and stripped of nearly every article of their clothing, women leading in the assault.

The noise of the disturbance could be heard in the Delancey street station near by, and Roundman Thomas Hagan and a squad of reserves went out on the run with clubs in hand. They swooped down on the strikers, clubbing left and right without discrimination, creating a wild panic among the mob that packed the street. In the scramble to escape from the blows of the nightsticks, women and children were knocked down and trampled upon, and one woman was so seriously injured as to require the attention of a surgeon, though neighboring drug stores soon did a driving trade in bandages, plaster and liniment.

The chief reason that there were no rioters in the last day of the fast of Tishaboo, on which no bread was eaten by the Orthodox Jews, is that the final ceremony of the fast the following day must spend the greater part of the day in the synagogues in prayer.

Structures Join Their Followers.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Aug. 10.—Structural steel workers on three digger boils which are being built for the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad at Belle Dock, quit work today in obedience to the order of the National Union declaring that a strike shall exist on all contractors now being fulfilled by the American Bridge Company.

Information received here today from different parts of the country shows that 10,000 men went out on strike against the company.

WITTE GETS JAP TERMS IN WRITING

Peace Conference Then Adjourns Pending His Formal Answer.

UNIFORMS DISCARDED.

JAPAN'S TERMS.

"The Portsmouth conference will end in a treaty of peace.
"The evacuation of Manchuria will be demanded.
"The cession of the island of Saghalien.
"An indemnity of $1,000,000-000.
"The cession of Vladivostok." —Eijiro Takasugi, Professor of the University of Tokyo.

By Samuel G. Blythe.

(Special to The Evening World.) PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 10.—The peace terms of the Japanese were submitted to the Russian plenipotentiaries in writing at the meeting today. The Russians now have the terms under consideration, and will as soon as possible submit their answer in writing. Until this answer is ready the conference is adjourned. Eijiro Takasugi, the representative of Mr. Witte, made this statement immediately after the adjournment of the conference:

"In the meeting of Aug. 10 the question of full powers has been regulated so that there will be no further difficulty on the subject. After this agreement was reached the Japanese plenipotentiaries handed to the Russian plenipotentiaries the written conditions of peace."

The Russian plenipotentiaries returned to the hotel from the conference apparently in the best of spirits.
Mr. Witte and Baron Gromyko were laughing and chatting with each other and their secretaries appeared to be in high good humor.

Prof. Takasugi Talks.

Eijiro Takasugi, Professor of English of the Imperial University of Tokyo, who has just ended a post-graduate course at Harvard, talked optimistically today after a conference with Mr.
Sato.

"The Portsmouth conference will end in a treaty of peace," he said. "The conference may be long drawn out, but Russia must in the end accede to the terms of Japan. She cannot do otherwise. Russia has fought until she can fight no longer. Japan has gained an impossible position and can dictate terms. There is no escape for the Muscovites."

Want Vladivostok, Too.

"One condition will be the immediate evacuation of Manchuria. Another will be the cession of the island of Sagha-lien. Vladivostok will also be demanded."

"Certainly an indemnity will be asked.
A defeated nation is always forced to pay an indemnity at the end of a war.
I do not know the amount, but I am convinced that it will be at the very least $1,000,000. This may be reduced, however, if peace can be brought about in no other way."

PASSENGERS ON ROCKAWAY BOAT IN PANIC

Steamer Sylvester Loses Rudder at Manhattan and Flounders in Sea.

There was a panic among the 400 passengers on board the Rockaway Beach steamerboat John Sylvester shortly after noon today when the boat lost her rudder and floundered about helplessly a few hundred yards beyond the breakers at Manhattan Beach.

The boat had left the Battery at 11 o'clock and was fairly well filled with passengers, mostly women and children. While passing Manhattan Beach the rudder fastenings snapped and the rudder dropped to the bottom of the sea.

A brisk wind was blowing, and the waves running high, so that it was impossible to steer the boat with the paddle wheels. The passengers saw that something was wrong, and as the boat pitched and rolled a panic in-sued, many women becoming hysterical and a number fainting.

The officers and crew finally guided the people and when the Rosedale, also of the Rockaway fleet, came along the entire boatload of passengers was transferred and taken to their destination.

It was fully two hours before a rudder could be rigged, when the John Sylvester proceeded to Hoboken under her own steam to be repaired.

MRS. CHARLES VINCENT FORNES.

MRS. FORNES HAS TROUBLE IN HER SUIT

May Be Unable to Establish a Legal Residence in Rutland Co., Vt.

(Special to The Evening World.) RUTLAND, Vt., Aug. 10.—"I am in a position where I cannot say a word," was the reply of James A. Merrill, attorney for Mrs. Charles V. Fornes, today when asked whether there will be a hearing on her bill for divorce at the September term of the Rutland County Court. William B. C. Slickney, of Bethel, whose name appears on the court docket as associate counsel, could not be located today. Merrill declined to give the name of Mrs. Fornes's New York attorney, and there is nothing on the court records to show that there is any.

Mr. Fornes has taken no steps here to fight the case so far as the County Clerk records show. It was learned from the clerk, Henry A. Harman, that there is a possibility that the case may not come to trial here, because of difficulty on the part of Mrs. Fornes to establish her residence in Rutland County. On this account every effort has been made by her attorneys to keep the divorce proceedings a secret during the eight months since the libel was filed.

The complaint says that Mr. and Mrs.
Fornes lived as husband and wife at Poultney, Vt., during 1901 and at short periods since. Mrs. Fornes has been in the habit of spending her summers at the cottage of her sister, Elsie Leslie, the actress, at Lake St. Catherine, near Poultney.

She moves in the best circles and takes prominent part in all social functions. "It is on the strength of this that she is trying to establish her residence in the county. In her complaint Mrs. Fornes does not name any co-respondent in connection with the statutory charges she brings against her husband. She asserts that she has communicated with several women, but is unknown to the libellant. By particular with a young shopgirl at Rutland, Vt., in March preceding the filing of the divorce proceedings.
Another charge is "intolerable severity," the libellant claiming that Fornes subjected her to cruel treatment which resulted in injury from which she can never recover. She does not name any sums of money, but on the ground that Fornes is a millionaire she asks for an amount to fully compensate for all his wrongdoings.

CIRCUS MEN IN HARD LUCK.

GRENOBLE, France, Aug. 10.—Three

Cadden's Circus, have become chargeable to the authorities here while waiting a legal decision in connection with the disposal of alleged circus property for the payment of alleged creditors' claims.

ZIEGLER, DYING, SAVED EXPLORERS

Ordered Search for Fiala Kept Up and Entire Party Is Rescued by Terra Nova —Their Ship, America, Crushed by Ice 20 Months Ago.

(By Associated Press.)

HONNINGSVAG, Norway, Aug. 10.—The Arctic steamer Terra Nova, which went to the relief of the Fiala-Ziegler polar expedition, has rescued Anthony Fiala and all others connected with the expedition, with the exception of one Norwegian seaman, who died from natural causes.

The ship America, which took out the expedition, was crushed in the ice early in the winter of 1903-04 and lost with a large part of her coal and provisions.

ALL IN GOOD HEALTH.

The thirty-seven members of the expedition who returned to safety are all in good health, despite their deprivations and trying experiences and their prolonged imprisonment in the Arctic, the expedition having been severed from all communication with the outside world since July, 1903.

Anthony Fiala, of Brooklyn, the leader of the expedition, in a brief statement, says:

"The rescue was most timely. By my order the America wintered in Nepe-litz Bay, where early in the winter of 1903-04 the ship was crushed in the ice and became a total loss, together with big quantities of coal and provisions.
"Supplies of stores left at Frans Josef Land by various relief parties saved us very serious privations.
"Three attempts to reach high latitudes failed. The scientific work, however, as planned, was successfully carried out by William J. Peters, of the United States Geological Survey.
"Our rescue was due to the splendid efforts of William S. Champ, (Secretary of the late William Ziegler) commanding the relief expedition, who, owing to the terrible weather, failed to reach us last year, and to the untiring zeal of Capt.
Kjeldsen and his Norwegian officers and crew, who for six weeks persistently forced their way through solid floes of ice and finally reached us.
"Found Stores Plenty.

"An abundance of stores had been left in the Frans Josef archipelago by the expedition commanded by the Duke of Abruzzi and the Andrea Doria expedition. The stores were in excellent condition and of great value.
"The expedition reached its destination at 15 minutes.

Anthony Fiala sailed on his search for the North Pole July 25, 1903, his expedition being equipped by the instructions from the late William Ziegler, leader of the expedition, being so kept headed for the Pole as long as possible to advance and to wave aside

Dr. Ziegler was heard from a few days after the North Pole had been reached by the expedition. The friends of the young explorer have waited all their lives for news of him, and it was great news for them to hear of his success today.

morning.

He said he went into Louis Achpan's cafe at Madison avenue and One Hundred and Seventeenth street today day and played pinocchle with Leiberman for $100 a side. Leiberman's money being nogrodsky says that after a brief discovered Leiberman was performing card tricks in the drawing, and could not be trusted. He then left the room and returned to his home at No. 101 West One Hundred and Fourteenth street. They will be arraigned to-morrow.

larceny.

of Karmel Seiback, 38-year-old Jewish afternoon Samboke went to his turned he found his room had been

Dr. Martin's New Alveolar Method of Safe Dentistry.

Any One in Need of Skilful Dental Work, Whether of the Teeth or Gums, Should Call at Dr. Martin's Office and Be Examined Free of Cost—
Book on Alveolar
Dentistry Free.

The originator of the new Alveolar Method of Dentistry, Dr. G. Gordon Martin, would like to see at his office, 320 5th av., N. W. cor. 32d st., all men, women and children who are in any way suffering from bad teeth or gums or any disorder of the mouth. By his ingenious method he is able to bring about almost marvellous results in the most serious diseases, as is proven by the remarkable cures he has made. As is now well known, Dr. Martin is the discoverer of a method by which loose teeth can be tightened and missing teeth replaced, without the need of wearing a plate or resorting to bridge work. Bridge work is solid and permanent, and you never can tell how soon it will fall out. Any one who wears a plate of false teeth, or who has seen them worn, knows how disfiguring, uncomfortable and unsightly they are. By going to Dr.
Martin no one need wear a plate of false teeth or have bridge work destroying the good teeth.

All Dentists Would Enthusiastically Done Dr. Martin would like to see at his office, 320 5th av., N. W. cor. 32d st., any one afflicted with—Loose or falling teeth, Pyorrhea or discharge from the gums, Missing teeth, no matter how many,
Decayed or decaying teeth, Painful breath (foul gums), Irregular teeth,
Neuralgia of the teeth, Broken, uncrowned teeth, Abscesses, ulcers, etc., etc.

No Charge for Examination.
There is no charge whatever for examination, counsel and advice.
Simply step into the office and be examined without obligation. You need not take treatment if you are not convinced that his method is superior to all others.

A Most Reasonable Price.
The Alveolar Method being a patent discovery, many seem to be under the impression that it is so expensive as to be beyond their reach. This is not so. Dr. Martin's charges are no higher than that of any first-class dentist or physician who has achieved something important in his profession, and the doctor will see to it that the price is within your means. He wants every one to benefit by his discovery, and his charges have been made accordingly.
Call for examination, anyway, and in that way you can judge for yourself whether the price is reasonable or not.
